

Date: Wednesday, June 9th 2010

Place: National Patras Stadium

Time:

With the widely known hard rock band "The Scorpions", will open this year's events within the frames of the International Festival of Patras 2010. The German band started its great career in the international music scene in Hanover, 45 years ago, and will complete their course with a series of farewell concerts in many parts of the world. In Greece, one of their stops is Patras.