

The Municipality of Aroania has its own tradition about the resistance to the Nazis and the on the "OXI"(NO) of Metaxas on 1940. On the day of October 28th, the residents gather at an open space and use flammable materials to construct a big "OXI" which is then switched on fire, while shooting in the air. The feasts of summer in Aroania and Daphni have a variety of local products.

The big trade fair at Tripotama lasts from August 31st to September 2nd, while a feast is held to honor Virgin Mary (on August 15th) at Lechouri and Agrambela, Leivartzi and Seires.

The first weekend after August 15th and for three days, cultural and sporting events take place at municipality of Paion, including music, theatre performances, concerts, traditional sweets etc. The big celebration is at Daphni during the weekend of 8th, 9th and 10th of September.
