a> Airplanes

Achaia is connected with domestic and international flights through Araxos International Airport located 45 km away from Patras. Especially during the summer months, a number of charter flights to and from abroad are scheduled, while domestic routes include flights to and from Heraklion (Crete) and Thessaloniki.
Phone numbers: 26930-54000 26930-54007,54008,54009, 23598

b> Trains

Achaia is linked by rail to Athens, Piraeus and the airport Eleftherios Venizelos and with the cities of Pyr http://www.trainose.com/en/airport/default
by filling fields Departure and Destination.
OSE Athens phone: 210 5131601, 5297777
OSE Patras phone: 2610 639108-9

c> Ships

The port of Patras is connected dailyto the following destinations
Italy: Ancona, Bari, Brindisi, Trieste, Venice
Greece: Corfu, Igoumenitsa, Zakynthos, Kefalonia
Also, the Ionian islands are accessible by ferry from Kyllini.
More information can be found at the following numbers:
Patras Port Authority: 2610 341002
Rio Port Authority: 2610 991203
Kyllini Port Authority: 26230 92211, 26950 28117

Also, the Rio ferry connects Achaia to Aitoloakarnania and Antirio and the port of Aigio has a route for S d> Buses

Achaia is connected by coach (bus) with almost whole Greece.
From Athens, buses to Achaia depart from Kifisos Bus Station every half hour between 5:00 to
If you wish to travel by public transport from the Athens International Airport, the main airport bu
More information:
Peloponnese Bus Station: Kifissos 100, Athens. Tel: 210 5124911
KTEL Thessaloniki: 2310 595433
Patras Bus Station: 2610 623887

Also within the city of Patras there is a continuous bus service to various areas. More information on pho http://www.poas.gr/ktel/ktelast-patras.gr/

e> Taxi

Visitors can also use taxis for travelling within and outside urban centers. Taxis can be found st 18 300 2610 346 700 2610 346 700

e> Car

Achaia visitor can come from Athens via the National Road Korinthos / Patras:
Driving from Athens, tak inthos / Patras. The National Road Patras - Corinth -

From Athens International Airport Eleftherios Venizelos:
Leaving the Athens International Airport, drive on "Attiki Odos", with the direction to
At the exit from the "Attiki Odos", you're on the highway to Corinth / Patras.
From Central Greece, Patras is connected by road via the bridge of Rio - Antirion "Harilac
The New National Road Patras - Pyrgos leads to the city of Pyrgos, Ancient Olympia, Kyllini an
This Highway "111" connects Achaia with Arcadia (Tripoli), while inside the county t
Finally, visitors can rent a car for transportation, from the usual car rental agencies.